Auction Sales This Day.

William McKay will sell at 10 o'clock, at his store, agricultural implements, &c.

THE MOLIDAY TRADE .- As a general rule, the most extensive and liberal buyers of holday goods do not put off their purchases until the stocks have become low and the crowd so great ions. Indeed, as we happen to know, some of trade are already on the lookout for sourcentra of the coming season. Dealers who propose to engage in it-and which of them does not !should therefore announce their attractions with-

We need hardly add, what they already know, that the advertising columns of TES NEWS, always a redex of the business of the city, are conaulted new more than ever by those desiring bargains in any branch of trade.

THE CHEAPEST YET .- The News Job Office is new printing bill-heads in the best style and on fine paper, at $250 per thousand. Merchanto, think Firm .- An alarm of fire on Saturday, about 12 o'clock, was caused by the partial burning of an eyster shanty, at the foot of Hasel street. The damage was slight. FERENDSOHAFTSBUND .- At the annual meeting of this society the following officers were re elected: President, Jacob Small; vice-president, Alexander Melohers; treasurer, H. Brunning; secretary. Charles Siegling. THE SACRED CONCERT at the Cathedral last night was largely attended (the number of per sons in the chapel being estimated at 508,) and was no less successful in a musical than in a money point of view. Bvery portion of the programme was creditably executed, but the Am

Maria (solo soprano) and the O Salutaris (trio) were especially admired. MASONIC ELECTION .- At the comunication of Walhalla Lodge, No. 65, A. F. M., the following gress of this light, there was considerable excitebrethren were elected to serve for the next Ma senie year: Brothers H. H. Muller, W. M.; Th. Melehers, S. W.; C. Scheibe, J. W.; J. Kruse, treaseror; J. M. Petersen, secretary; H. Linsebrinck, S. D.; C. C. Nordhausen, J. D.; Ch. Floethemann, P. okh, stewards; L. F. Meyer, tyler.

BODESEY. -On Saturday night, the residence of Mr. Wood, on East Bay, near Hasel street, was entered by some persons, and robbed of clothi: g and sarious articles of value. The robbery must hars entered Mr. Wood's bed-room where a lamp was burning, and carried off his breeches with sixty dollars in the pocket. Several robberies have cocurred previously in this neighborhood.

THE LAVERPOOL AND CHARLESTON STRAWmirs.-The British Steamship Darien, Captain Peters, which sailed from this port November 20, arrived at Liverpool December 9, as we learn by a le dispatch. The British Steamship Adalia, Ceptain Sanderson, of the same line, sailed for this port from Liverpool November 29, and may be expected in a few days. The Marmora is now at this point loading and will have quick dispatch.

A LIBERAL OFFER. The habitues of the academy of Music will be pleased to learn of a plan by which the tax on their pockets may be reduced. Manager Ford proposes to issue tickets in packages of fifty, at one dollar each, the holder to be entitled to all the privileges of a socured seat, and not to be called upon for any extra disbursement on the change of the troupe This plan has met with general favor, and a large number of business men and prominent citizens have already subscribed the requisite amount and secored seats for the season.

Sr. PETER'S CHURCH .- A Fair for the bene-At of St. Peter's Catholic Church (colored) will be held in Christmas week, beginning on December The paster of the church, the Rev Mr. Foichi, in announcing the Fair yesterday, said that the colored Catholies hoped to have the support and assistance of all the Catholics in Charleston. They were not, he said, strong enough or wealough to carry on the Fair successfully with ent the help of their friends, and they begged East their coreligionists would aid them, both by contributions and by being present at the Fair, which will be held at the old Express office, oppoate the Charleston Hotel.

THE WARM CHANGE .- The weather yesterday was charming, and the air as mil I and baimy as if the old adage was reversed and spring had ed the place of winter. Fires were unneces sary, and open doors and windows by no means table. Some weather-wise individual rentured the prediction, some time since, that this would be a severe winter, and that the soid weather would commence early. As far as this imate is concerned, his prophecies have come to manght, and our winter has given no cause for discontent with the quantity or quality of weather furnished. The church-going portion of the community appreciated the delightful day, and the different places of worship throughout the city were well attended.

THE MATINES. - The mid-day performance at plea in said case.
plea in said case. the Academy of Music on Saturday was attended by a large audience, who soon filled every scat in the orchestra and dress circles. The greater rtion of the family circle had been reserved for the orphans, and such child was presented on en tering the lobby with a song-hook of the Chap partners as about the field the field fiel man distors. The colored orphans were assigned seats in the family sircle. These Saturday matinees are a new featare in theatripal performances, and very popular with those persons who rejolee in a multitude o children. The plays chosen are eminently adapted to the socasion, and furnish an endless fund of aransem.nt to the young spectators.

SMALL CHARGE AND CITY BILLS. -The scarci ty of one and two dollar blils causes some meon venience in the retail trade of Charleston, and it has been suggested that an issue of city bills of those denominations would relieve the pressure equence in circulation. They are quoted regularly at par, and several of the banks are, we are told, willing to receive them on depos-It would seem, then, that a small issue of one and two dollar city bills could readily be absorbed, and if the public mind were satisged that only a limited amount would be put on the market, they would readily circulate at par. The public, however, must reber that the suggestion to emit city bills has a double motive. The city cannot, rrewing money, pay the January interest on the city debt. Mayor Pullsbury's extravagance has brought the wheels of the musicioal government to a stand-still. The police department and the streets are swallowing up re money than the city can pay. Nearly all city cannot negotiate a loan or put out city bills matead of greenbacks in payment of its current Habilipies, the January interest will go by default or be paid in city paper. This is a blue prospect, worse than we expected. If Mayor Pills bx parse series Osepia, of Lexington, individ-nally and as partner of Summer & Ciapin. Peti-tlus for final discharge. AMUSEMENTS. -The burlesque and comedy combination of which the Chapman Sisters and Mr.

Bishop are the stars, may well be proud of their reception in Charleston. The seven performances

(including the matinee) which they have already

given in our city, have, on the whole, drawn lar ger and more fashionable audiences than have ever assembled here since the good old days "before the war." The infernal burlesque of "Pluto"

was rendered with spirit on Saturday evening,

with the rich farse of "One Thousand Milliners Wanted," as the afterpiece. This week we are to have an opportunity of seeing Bishop more frequestly in comedy, in which he is as droll and in every way as effective as in burlesque. Buck-conclude with "Black-Byed Susan." The Chapman Sisters and Bishop appear in both pieces

which is equivalent to saying that the sudience

will be delighted and amused uninterruptedly

Most of the fixtures are in position, and though the move will not be completed for some days, all business will in future be transacted at the new stand. The building i quite new and has never been occupied. Though not built for the Express Company, it will serve admirably as an office and warehouse. It is 30 feet wide by 76 feet deep, and has an area outside of the deaks amply sufficient for the reception and chinment of goods. The scale is on the cast side of the building, near the stairs and close to the The enclosure for the desks is somewhat smaller than in the old office. It will contain the deaks for the receiving and shipping clerks, the money clerk, teller and out-door clerk Mr. Gillespie, the superintendent, will have his desk in the rear of this floor and on the opposite side. The second story will be used for a store room, and will also contain sleeping apartments and an office. The work on the building was done by Messre, J. H. Devereux and C. W. Styles, and the gas fixtures by Mr. Paddon. The latter are of bronze, and of the style now in vogue to the Northern business houses. A small yard is in the rear of the building, and three large doors on Hasel street will give ample facilities for hand ling large packages. The unclaimed boxes and packages, a goodly pile, will be brought to the new building, and will be sold at public anction as seen as the necessary instructions are received.
